Join us this week on Facebook for our
Countdown to Christmas Giveaways!

Dear friends,

The plants are tucked away, the deer fences are in place, the houses are covered, and we are looking forward to a little rest! Soon we will be looking through our catalogs, placing orders for next spring, and planning the annual trip to the West Coast for February. Which reminds me - if you are interested in something special, give us a call or email us at sales@orientalgardensupply.com to let us know what you are looking for.

Just as we have been making our way around the nursery and getting things all ready for the winter to come, we are hoping your gardens ready too. Taking good care of your plants over the winter is something you should be thinking about. Remember to make sure that the plants you purchased this year are well-hydrated. If you need any items such as deer repellent and trunk guards to help with critter protection or if you have any questions about what to do for specific plants, please give us a call or drop us an email.

If you are stymied about what to get for that special gardener on your list, don't forget about the Oriental Garden Supply Gift Certificate - available in all sizes, guaranteed to please any recipient, particularly if you are not sure what they would like. You can purchase downloadable certificates right on the website! Purchase for a gift recipient or for yourself, and you can use them during a visit to the nursery or for your online order! Great deal!

And head on over to our Facebook page to join in on our Countdown to Christmas Giveaways this week! Another opportunity to catch some goodies for yourself or that person you need another gift for!

Happy Holidays,

Al Pfeiffer, Owner
Oriental Garden Supply

Ready for winter?

Remember this scene from the nursery in the fall? Ahhhmazing colors!

Right now the nursery looks sort of like this:

Please note that we have suspended shipping for the winter. If you have some plants in mind that you would like to preorder for next year, let us know by using the contact form on the website, try calling the nursery at 585.586.3850, or just email us at sales@orientalgardensupply.com. Al will keep an eye out while perusing his catalogs or on his buying trip to the Northwest in February.

Note: We are in the midst of completing our inventories and should have the listings updated before long, but you can check the website for our current availabilities. If you register as a customer, you can also download the latest complete availability listing in either Excel or pdf format from the link under the Resources tab at the top of the webpage to review at your leisure.
