SPECIAL EVENT and Newsletter for November 2019

Greetings, friends!

It's almost time for the nursery to go to sleep for the winter! We will close on Wednesday, November 27th at the end of the day for retail sales, but we may still be around in the nursery for a while before the snow gets too deep. If you need some supplies or have questions, give us a call at (585) 586-3850, or better yet, send us an email at sales@orientalgardensupply.com or use the contact form on our website <https://www.orientalgardensupply.com>.

But before we sleep, we are having a "pre-BLACK FRIDAY, pre-Small Business Saturday, pre-Cyber Monday" sale! This is your chance to get all kinds of little things for your special people, grab some of Al's gorgeous ceramics, get a deal on some of the cast resin statuary or fountains, load up on Plantskydd or Worm Power, or if you don't have a clue, get some gift certificates (also on sale)! For those of you that aren't local to us and can't get out to the nursery, never fear! these deals are available online too.

Have you been keeping up with our Facebook and Instagram posts? We will keep bringing you more pretty pictures and information over the winter. Tell all your friends and help us get to 1000 Likes on Facebook! Like and follow us at <https://www.facebook.com/orientalgardensupply/> and <https://www.instagram.com/orientalgardensupply/> or just visit our pages - they are public and you don't need an account to see what's going on!

This time of year means muddy patches at the nursery, plus we are moving a lot of plants around with the bobcat to get them undercover for the winter and making even more mud. So when you come, be sure to bring your mud boots and maybe something to set your goodies on in the car is advisable. We look forward to seeing you here at OGS before the winter comes in earnest!

Cheers,

Al Pfeiffer, Owner

Oriental Garden Supply

Plant Notes:

It's almost winter for real in a few weeks! Yikes! Are your gardens all cleaned up yet? If you haven't gotten that done, what are you waiting for? Any questions? Call us, email, or stop by the nursery.

Avoiding winter damage to shrubs or trees: Watch for snow load and gently brush off any heavy accumulations of snow to head off possible damage. In general, if you need to prune any broken branches, prune judiciously to enhance a plant's natural appearance. Some, but not all, evergreens may benefit from having an antidessicant applied. Again, call, email, or stop by the nursery if you have questions.

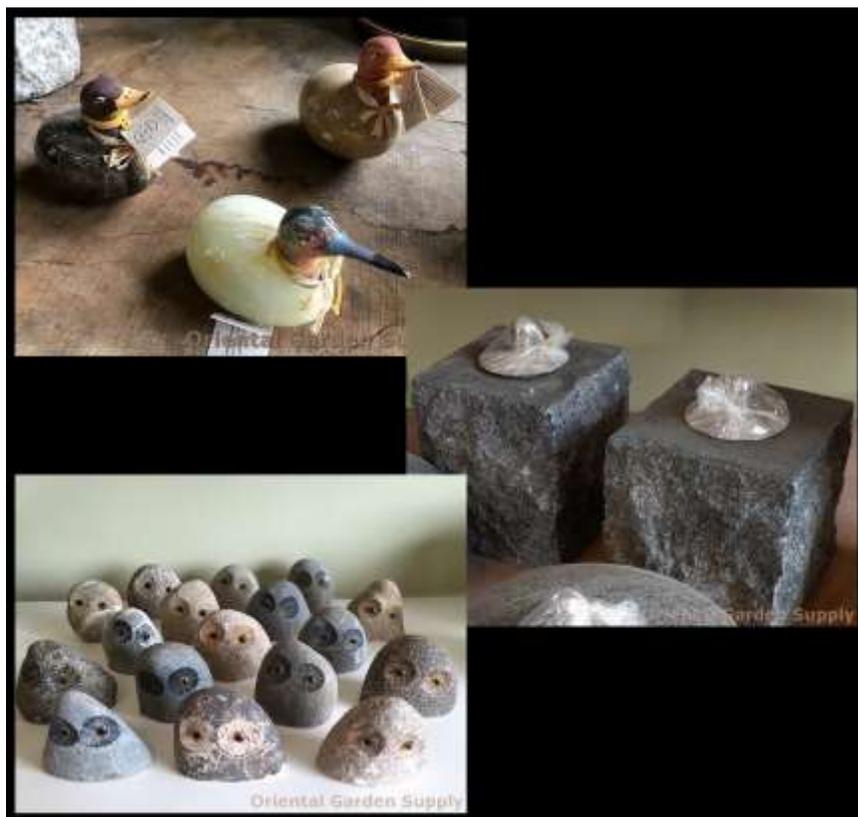

Watering: Hopefully, you have kept up on watering your new plants. If you have any plants in containers that you have put in the garage or shed to overwinter, make sure they get a dose of water in Jan-Feb if they need it.

Critter damage: Deer, rabbits, mice, moles, voles, what have you - they certainly can get destructive over the winter and think that your precious plants look pretty tasty. Check your shrubs and trees often and look for telltale tracks and bite marks - do you need to place some effective deterrents? We've got various sizes and styles of Plantskydd at the nursery to help with that. Plastic tree wrap around the trunks of vulnerable trees may be needed.

Dream about spring: Think about encouraging pollinators or creating a backyard habitat with your plant choices.

Upcoming and Ongoing:

OGS will be closing for the winter at the nursery on Wednesday, November 27th. If you need any supplies or just want to say good-night, come on out before then!

Reminder, we have downloadable gift certificates on the website here that you can get at any time for those last minute gifts!

If there is some special plant that you have been yearning for, drop us a note and perhaps Al can find it when he visits the western nurseries this winter. Also, if there is a plant we have in stock now that you would like to purchase and have us to hold until spring, please let us know.

If your group is interested in touring the nursery or even holding an event here next year, give us a call at (585) 586-3850 or contact us at sales@orientalgardensupply.com. We love to have visitors!

See you again in the spring!
